Giving to Charities at a Time of Need

LOS ANGELES, CA (August 1, 2009) – Nowadays, due to the economic slowdown for most industries, companies are holding off on their charitable gifting, as reported by Newsweek, but David Tishbi Handcrafted Jewelry remains committed in supporting important causes. Dtownla.com is sponsoring Taste of Downtown LA, and is holding a silent auction to support Midnight Mission. Salute, a yearly benefit hosted by the Arthritis Foundation, is also organizing a silent auction to help fund programs for children who suffer from Arthritis. David Tishbi will be donating a popular item from his collection to each charitable event, to help support these charitable programs.

The Two-Tone Heart Garnet Necklace is a sweet choice for Midnight Mission. This hammered sterling silver pendant features 14K rose gold heart and garnet center, and it has a retail value of $329. A “loving” symbol that’s well-suited, for this local charity.

The Wire Oval sterling silver necklace is a wonderful choice for this event. Skillfully crafted with a simple design and an Onyx stone, it’s universally enjoyed by all, and it has a retail value of $149. A hot item on their website and will be a popular choice at the event!

Midnight Mission, an organization that has been providing meals, education, shelter and other important services to Skid Row’s homeless since 1914, will receive all proceeds from dtownla.com’s silent auction

All proceeds from Salute fund the following Juvenile Arthritis (JA) Programs & Activities: Camp Cruz (camp exclusively for JA), Camp ILA (Imaging Life without Arthritis), ArthritisANGELS (support program for hospitalized/newly diagnosed children), JA Family Activities, national conferences and community education.
